

Press Release

The National Commission for Women has taken suo moto cognizance of the incident wherein it was reported atrocities on women have been committed by the local administration of Gram Bhatta Parsual of the District Gautam Buddha Nagar of UP.

Smt. Yasmeen Abrar, Acting Chairperson, National Commission for Women said this matter was of grave concern and it was very shocking. She has written to Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh and Home Minister in this regard.

A delegation met the Acting Chairperson and handed over a representation calling upon for immediate intervention on the incident wherein women, children and farmers were subjected to atrocities by the local administration on the pretext of lathicharge /use of tear gas on the mob which had gathered to amicably who were preventing against the confiscation of the land by the Government.

The Acting Chairperson, will be visiting Farukhabad of Uttar Pradesh on 12th in connection with Tanya Murder case, Kayanegang, Farukabad. During the visit she will meet the DM, SSP and other local government authorities to discuss the issues relating to women. She will also discuss about pending cases of Uttar Pradesh in NCW with the concerned authorities about the action taken in this regard.