

National Commission for Women

NCW issues Suo-motu notice to DGP UP Press Note

New Delhi, 5th August, 2019: On the 2nd of August, 2019 a news item was published in India Today captioned “UP man bets wife, loses, lets friends gang rape her twice” wherein it was reported that a man addicted to gambling and alcohol, bet his wife after running out of money and allowed his friends to gang rape her after losing the stake. On the basis of this media report, the National Commission for Women took Suo-Motu cognizance of the case and has taken up the matter with DGP Uttar Pradesh. The Commission is shaken by this incident and the fact that there is rise in crime against women despite the enactment of the Criminal Law Amendment Act 2013. The Commission has asked for a detailed investigation report from the DGP office.
